

2016 Henley Graduation

After another hardworking and accomplishing learning journey, the Henley Malta team would like to congratulate 19 programme members on their graduation in Masters of Business Administration from Henley Business School at the University of Reading (UK).

On Friday 23rd September, 17 of 19 programme members accompanied by Mr. Lorenzo Mule` Stagno, Malta Associate and Programme Director, and Ms. Christine Caruana, Programme Manager, on behalf of Henley Malta, attended the Henley Business School Greenlands campus degree conferment ceremony.

Each graduate was called individually by name to the stage by the Dean of Henley Business School, Professor John Board, to shake hands with the Chancellor Sir John Madejski and receive their certificate. The Vice-Chancellor Sir David Bell was also present during the ceremony. Friends and family accompanied the graduates on this day of celebration to commemorate together their great achievement. After the ceremony, a light finger buffet was served for the graduates and their guests who all enjoyed the warm and sunny weather Henley had to offer that day.

The Henley MBA Malta Graduates for 2016 are: Borg George, Borg Efrem, Buttigieg Ryan, Calleja Rosanne, Cordina Lycia, Depasquale Roberto (in absentia), Farrugia Michael, Grech Pauline, Grech Warren, Grech Sara, Magro Sandra, Mangion Pierre, Mercieca Charles, Opitz Marc (in absentia), O'Shaughnessy David Patrick, Saliba Charles, Sant Portanier Charlotte, Van Bergen Jolanda, Vella Brian.
